FROM THE EICASA CHAIRPERSON'S DESK

Metamorphosis is the journey of change; Vista is the clarity of our vision. Together, they define our evolution."

Dear Students,

The transition from March to April has been a true embodiment of our theme, "Metavallo Vista." Just as the seasons shift, we have witnessed a profound metamorphosis within our branch—moving from the analytical rigor of technical sessions to the expansive, vibrant energy of the playing field. This journey is a testament to our collective evolution as future professionals.

March was a month of intellectual clarity. The Empowerment & Excellence Symposium on March 17th served as a magnificent finale to our Women's Week, showcasing a vista of leadership that inspires. Parallely, our "Income Tax Ki Pathsala" ensured our technical foundations remained unshakable as we navigated the nuances of the Income Tax Act 2025.

The heartbeat of this transformation, however, was our commitment to holistic growth. We successfully curated a series of Indoor and Outdoor Sports that challenged both the mind and the body. From the strategic concentration of our indoor tournaments to the raw endurance and teamwork of our outdoor events, these moments provided a vital avenue for rejuvenation and connection. This spirit reached its peak with the EICASA Premier League (EPL), which concluded on April 4th. The synergy and fair play displayed were a powerful reflection of the "Metavallo" spirit—changing, growing, and winning together.

As we look toward the horizon, our vista remains clear. We have an intensive lineup of seminars ahead, focusing on Bank Audit, International Taxation, and IBC & Insolvency. To support your academic goals, our Mock Test series is in full swing, and we are planning an educational visit to Science City to explore the wonders of logic and innovation.

A Call for Your Vision

The strength of EICASA Guwahati lies in its students. As we move forward, I invite each of you to be an active architect of our branch's future. Whether it is a fresh idea for a seminar, a suggestion for a community initiative, or your enthusiastic participation in our upcoming events, your voice matters. I welcome your ideas with open arms—let us collaborate to make this term truly extraordinary.

Let us carry this momentum into the new financial year. Stay focused on your vision, embrace the change, and keep striving for excellence.

Warm regards,
CA Nitika Bagaria
Chairperson,

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Dear Readers,

It gives me great pleasure to present the latest edition of Metavallo Vista, capturing a month filled with learning, celebration, leadership, and student engagement at the Guwahati Branch of EICASA. This edition reflects the collective enthusiasm of our student community and the continued efforts to create meaningful opportunities that contribute to both professional and personal development.

The month commenced with committee deliberations and planning initiatives aimed at strengthening upcoming activities and enhancing student participation.

We also witnessed the successful publication of the previous edition of our E-Newsletter, which continues to serve as a platform for knowledge sharing, student expression, and updates on branch initiatives.

A series of engaging programmes marked the Women's Week celebrations, including a vibrant Women's Day celebration and insightful knowledge sessions under the Empowerment & Excellence Symposium. Students benefited from discussions on examination strategy, corporate career pathways, communication skills, financial awareness, and professional ethics. These sessions provided valuable guidance while encouraging students to broaden their perspectives and prepare for diverse professional opportunities.

The month also featured the handover ceremony welcoming new EICASA members and expressing gratitude to the outgoing team for their dedicated service. Such transitions reflect continuity in leadership and reinforce our shared commitment to serving the student community with renewed energy and responsibility.

Adding to the momentum, the Half-Yearly Outdoor and Indoor Sports Festivals brought together students in a spirit of camaraderie and healthy competition. These events provided a refreshing break from academic routines while promoting teamwork, sportsmanship, and overall well-being.

Through this edition, we aim to highlight not only the events conducted but also the vibrant participation and collaborative spirit that define our community. The editorial board remains committed to bringing you informative, engaging, and meaningful content in every issue.

I warmly invite students to actively contribute articles, insights, and creative pieces for upcoming editions. Your ideas and perspectives are what make this newsletter a true representation of our student fraternity.

Let us continue working together to make Metavallo Vista a platform that informs, engages, and inspires. Your continued support, feedback, and participation are deeply valued.

Warm regards,

Vision to Fly

In the silence of dreams, a whisper rose,
A vision unseen, yet the heart well knows.
Not bound by fear, nor chained by doubt,
A fire within kept calling out.

The sky above was vast and wide,
Yet something deeper stirred inside.
A voice that said, "You're meant to soar,"
Beyond the limits, beyond the shore.

When shadows fall and hopes feel thin,
That vision glows from deep within.
The winds may roar, the storms may fight,
They test your courage, steal your light.,

A vision to fly is more than a dream,
It's stronger than what the eyes may deem.
It's faith that walks when roads are gone,
A silent strength that carries on.

When others stop and choose the ground,
You hear a different, deeper sound.
A call that echoes, fierce and true,
"The sky was always meant for you."

So spread your wings, though they may shake,
Take every risk your heart can take.
For those who dare, despite the cry,
Are the ones who truly learn to fly.

Let failures write your story bold,
Let courage shine in shades of gold.
For every dream that dares to try,
Holds within... a vision to fly
